

Fastenal Company Purchasing Resale Certificate FAQs

Why does the MTC form not include the state registration number for the state the products are purchased from?

Registration for sales and use tax is not required in those states to have a resale certificate. The state accepts MTC forms with other state information.

Why is the Minnesota exemption certificate given for states other than Minnesota?

Registration for sales and use tax in those states are not required to have a resale certificate. The state will accept an out of state resale certificate but not an MTC or SST form.
